

MATRIX USA, INC.
A Leading Distributor of Raw Materials to the North American PCB Industry

"THE PCB INDUSTRY'S BEST KEPT SECRET"

*Kieran Healy
 President*

On behalf of the entire Matrix Group, I invite you to be part of our winning supply Team. This past October, EI (Endicott Interconnect) named Matrix as its "Supplier of the Year." The award from EI further encourages us to make our services available to any company that is truly following the course of high technology. We have the right products, full laminate fabrication and the desire to partner with good solid companies. We promise to reduce your Raw Material costs and improve your Yields.
